Hop aboard the Squirrelville Trolley and visit the Squirrelville Nursery.

1. "It's a boy!" A baby squirrel soon after the doctor left it.
  2. Two babes o' the woods....only a few days on earth and not sure they like the place at all.
  3. Imagine him trying to stow away a nut at his age!
  4. Now for the first attempt to walk! And with its eyes still closed too, by jiminy!
  5. The "Australian crawl."
  6. Ah! Now that it has its eyes open the food tastes better.
  7. "Say when!"
  8. About now he is beginning to feel like a regular fellow. He has grown a tail 'nd everything.
  9. Talk about a hungry family!
  10. Hoover never had greater food distribution difficulties.
  11. Now a month older and trying to coax mama for lunch.
  12. "Nuthin doin', kid! I'll take you out to dinner today."
- not in any taxicab, either!" A squirrel mother always carries children around in this fashion.
- st lesson in the art of eating solid food.
- discovering that it can cling to a limb.
- golly, it's a cinch!....Hey, ma, come see me climb!"

MAR 12, 1923

17. Sampson eats first orange. "It tastes great!"
18. Ah, a banana! Watch your step!
19. Did you know that sweet corn is "french pastry" in Squirrelville?
20. When one dish of nuts is quite enough for two.
21. THE END.
